FEBRUARY-MARCH 2019

Protection on the road. One recent unique furlough experience was reporting at the church in Virginia where Dan grew up, and the following week reporting at the church in Wisconsin where Opal grew up. In February we were in WI, MI, NC, and SC. While we were in Michigan, we ended up getting caught in “white-out” conditions, with practically zero visibility. We made our way to Wisconsin while driving on roads with impacted snow and ice. In Northern Wisconsin, we found ourselves in a snow storm and made an unanticipated stop at a hotel, just a dozen miles from a forty-vehicle pileup on our southern route. The following day we saw vehicles upside down, imbedded in the snow, and stranded. As we continued south, we were just minutes away from several wrecks caused from slippery rain. Having finished that trip, days later we made our way to North Carolina, and our van’s speedometer passed the 250,000 mile-mark on the way. We are grateful for the Lord’s provision of a vehicle that has been dependable for many, many miles, and for His protection in the middle of precarious weather conditions.

Ebenezer Bible College and Seminary’s (“IPES”) Master of Ministry block course. From January 7-11, Caleb French taught a course on worship to a class of thirty-five students. Although Dan and Wes Barley worked together on the logistics, Wes took a week from his deputation schedule to travel to Hermosillo to coordinate the week. This was one of the very few of the 50 Master of Ministry courses at IPES that Dan has missed. Coordinating the postgrad program is one of the activities that Dan has been turning over to dedicate attention to further equipping Latin American pastors through TEAM Mobile Seminary. Dan was very happy to know that the postgrad week was so successful without his presence.

Wesley Barley’s ordination. It was an honor for Dan to participate in Wes’s ordination questioning on February 13 and later participate in his ordination on the 24th. We are excited for the Barleys as they near the completion of deputation to head to Hermosillo, Sonora, Mexico.

Kid’s Corner. Damaris is growing in her art ability. Daniel turned 14 on January 21. Abby will take her ACTs in April. Anna made the Dean’s List last semester at BJU and continues to work hard at college.

Please pray for us as we continue to travel on furlough. In March we will be at churches in South Carolina and West Virginia. Dan will be in Phoenix for a week to attend MGMI’s staff conference.

Thank you for your prayers!
