JANUARY 2019

During the month of December our furlough travel schedule diminished, since many churches focused on activities related to Christmas. This “lull” in traveling allowed us to at least attempt to get caught up on responsibilities. We appreciate your prayers as we simultaneously address different areas of ministry. We manage Seminary Dean tasks online with Ebenezer Bible College and Seminary (IPES) in Hermosillo. We have ongoing activities with our mission agency when Dan wears the Assistant Director hat. We continue to “settle” into our house in South Carolina, since we began furlough travels right after leaving Mexico in June. Planning TEAM Mobile Seminary trips creates logistical work. Although we enjoy the challenge, we need grace and strength, and we appreciate your prayers.

Limited travel in December allowed us to participate a little bit more with our commissioning church, Iglesia Bautista de la Fe, the church that Dan joined twenty-five years ago while he was in college to prepare for the mission field. We were able to have the youth group over for dinner and fellowship after they went caroling, Opal and Rose participated in the church’s Christmas cantata, and we enjoyed spending time with the church family on the last day of 2018 as we welcomed in the New Year.

Upcoming travels with TEAM Mobile Seminary are taking form. Dan and Opal will be traveling to Costa Rica this coming summer. Dan will be speaking at a pastors’ conference and a conference for seminary teachers, and Opal will be speaking to the ladies. Another meeting that is confirmed is a 2020 teaching trip to an area of Mexico that Dan has never visited. Please pray for Dan as he attempts to follow up on upcoming opportunities in several countries throughout Latin America.

Please pray for us as we continue to travel on furlough. In January we will be in churches in South Carolina, North Carolina, and Virginia; in February we will be in Wisconsin and Michigan, and perhaps in more areas as our furlough itinerary continues to develop.

Family Corner: Daniel turns 14 on January 21. He is the second youngest of the family but currently the second tallest of the family!

Our promised support level is 75%, but the Lord continues to provide for us in unique ways!

Thank you for your prayers!
