OCTOBER/NOVEMBER 2018 report, praises, and prayer requests

Global Opportunities Week activities at BJU were held October 1-4. While there, Dan represented MGMI primarily but also represented IPES (Ebenezer Bible College and Seminary) and TEAM Mobile Seminary. Wesley Barley, who is on deputation to go to Hermosillo, returned to Greenville for a few days to help Dr. Shumate and Dan man the MGMI table. Dan spoke in different classes as well as interacted with many students who are interested in serving the Lord on the mission field.

The National Conference on Hispanic Outreach (or, the Hispanic Think Tank), was held October 5 in Greenville, SC. You can go to www.nchothinktank.com/ to see the sessions that were recorded. Apart from moderating a session, Dan represented MGMI, IPES and TEAM Mobile Seminary.

Anna continues to thrive as a freshman at Bob Jones University and is adjusting well to living in the dorms, as well as adjusting to living in the US after having spent nearly her entire life in Mexico.

Our van recently passed the 240,000 mile mark, and the Lord has kept us safe on the road as we continue to travel extensively. Recently, we had to have a good amount of work completed on the van to correct some issues, but that was when we were in an area where we could leave the van in the shop for a few days. We appreciate your prayer for our safety.

We appreciate your prayers for wisdom and strength as we are juggling many responsibilities and activities. Our furlough travels allow us to report to churches about our last 17 years in Mexico and share how the Lord is leading us to equip national pastors in Latin America so that they can train the next generation. Opal continues to orchestrate the homeschooling (or, “wherever-we-are schooling”) of three of our four kids. Dan continues to work on setting up more meetings along the way, work with the seminary from a distance, work on administrative responsibilities as Assistant Director of MGMI, and work on fleshing out plans for the upcoming TEAM Mobile Seminary trips throughout Latin America. We enjoy the challenge, but we also need the Lord’s direction, wisdom, and grace to accomplish the what, where, when, and how that He requires from us and deserves of us.

Please pray for us as we continue to travel on furlough. In the month of October, we had meetings in South Carolina, Wisconsin, and North Carolina. In November and December, we have meetings in South Carolina and Virginia.

Thank you for your prayers!
