NOVEMBER

My parents' ministry in Navolato where my dad has been interim pastor for five years came to an end. We were able to fill the 15-passenger van and be a part of their farewell service. They are currently serving now in Alhuey, and we are looking forward to what the Lord has for them.

Also, I have begun a discipleship class with the couple that was saved last month. We praise the Lord for their faithfulness and desire to grow in grace and in the knowledge of their Lord and Savior.

My ministry as baseball chaplain through Baseball Chapel has been going very well. The guys have been opening up a little more, and I have had the opportunity to give counsel and establish some good friendships.

Please continue to pray for our outreach in the little town of Angostura. Also, kids from our town of Alhuey and others near here have been faithful to Thursday night Bible club. Some mothers have come to the prayer service, so we praise the Lord for that.

DECEMBER

HORNOR FAMILY

The ladies from church and visitor-friends had their breakfast fellowship at our house. My wife shared a challenge from God's Word, and they all enjoyed food and fellowship.

Midmonth our church had its Christmas caroling activity where we visit certain people's houses with a song, a brief Scripture reading, passing out of tracts, an invitation to our Christmas Cantata, candy, and then I would pray for the home at the end.

On Thursday, Dec. 22, we had our Christmas Cantata, and this time it was held in front of our church on the paved road. This way we were able to accommodate everyone, and we praise the Lord for the people He brought, up to 120 in attendance. There were seven specials in song, a drama, and, at the end, a brief evangelistic challenge. Afterward, everyone stayed for dinner on the grounds.

We are very grateful to the Lord this Christmas because two close friends of my wife and their families were able to be with us. It was a blessing to see Pastor Radamés once again, and he actually preached for us on Sunday, Dec. 25.

For the end-of-the-year service we had a blessed time of testimonies, and I challenged our people from Zachariah 4:6, emphasizing our dependence on the Holy Spirit to bring about any change and better habits for this next year. After the message I had everyone present stand up to form a circle in the auditorium and had all the men pray for this new year. Following that, we enjoyed a delicious dinner and fellowship while we waited until the New Year came.
