August newsletter: Preparation for service. This month's newsletter highlights how the Lord is and has been at work in preparing His children for life-long service.

Online classes. Apart from traveling to provide training, online teaching opportunities continue to extend our influence. Dan is teaching Philosophy of Education this semester for IPES (Ebenezer Bible College and Seminary). He is also working on a series of lectures as a supplement for an online course for another seminary that focuses on training people throughout Latin America. Dan was asked to provide a course for yet another Spanish-speaking online seminary that trains present and future pastors.

A unique opportunity arose recently. The president of a Spanish-speaking online seminary approached Dan about a collaboration. They would record Dan teaching courses for their program, and the seminary would provide Dan with a copy of all the courses, allowing TEAM Mobile Seminary to increase the number of courses that we can provide for pastors throughout Latin America. We ask that you pray for wisdom and grace as we work on the logistics, as this is a long-term project, but with long-term benefits.

Promoting, recruiting, and field visits. We appreciate your prayers as we plan for a lot of traveling.

1. Dan will be recruiting and promoting for MGMI at several colleges this school year. So far, he is scheduled to be at Bob Jones University (Global Opportunities Week), Appalachian Bible College (Missions conference) and Maranatha Baptist University.
2. Some of our missionaries will be Stateside for the next few months to raise more support, and we will be able to visit them. Also, Dan and Opal will visit MGMI missionaries Gregorio and Adriana Murillo, in Brooklyn, NY, where Gregorio is pastoring a thriving Hispanic church.
3. Apart from the above-mentioned trips, we have upcoming visits to Florida, North Carolina, and Ohio.

Praise. Two former students of ours from IPES married each other. They went straight to Africa after graduating and raising all of their support from within Mexico. They have served there ever since (around 20 years now). We recently found out that their oldest son is headed to study at a Bible college.

The family corner. All four of our kids managed to be together at BJU this year. Anna will be working at the University to support herself while she continues writing her book during her spare time. Abby just began her last year of undergrad. Daniel began his freshman year and is staying in the dorms. Rose is working on her penultimate year of high school while taking two dual-enrollment courses at the University.

Thank you for your prayers!
