May 2021 report

Count your many blessings...

1. In 2014, Dan created the Master's in Teaching Bible degree program at Ebenezer Bible College and Seminary ("IPES") in Hermosillo, Sonora, Mexico, and taught the first course of the program. This degree program was based on Dan's doctoral dissertation, which mapped out the program. The first person to complete this program will graduate in May. We trust many will soon follow.
2. In our last letter, we reported that our support level was at 70%. Since that time, we have a new, anonymous donor, who has brought our support level to 80%. Thank you, whoever you are!!!
3. Our last letter reported that Dan was asked to teach two more virtual courses, once he is done with the current courses that he is teaching. Since then, these unique opportunities have expanded. Currently, Dan is scheduled to teach five upcoming virtual/hybrid (live and recorded) courses, apart from the online (recorded) course that he will provide for an online seminary. These six upcoming Spanish-language courses are for ministry-training facilities located in four countries, although the students who will take the courses live all throughout Latin America (and beyond at times, as one student in one of his classes is a missionary living in a restricted-access country). Two of these courses are for seminary professors, highlighting TEAM Mobile Seminary's 2 Timothy 2:2 goal of training the trainers.
4. Also in our last letter, we explained how many of the international teaching trips that Dan was planning to take were postponed due to Covid and that his next scheduled trip would not take place until July. One of the teaching opportunities that was closed in 2020 has recently reopened, so Dan will make that trip in June. Our next prayer letter will serve as a report of that trip.
5. As the opportunities to teach virtual, hybrid, and online courses increase, we recognize the need to acquire better recording equipment, especially since we desire to use the recorded instruction as a resource for future use for those who wish to train for ministry, and to train others in return. One church recognized that needed and voted to send us a special offering to contribute to supplying for this need.
6. On June 7, Opal and I will have completed twenty-four years of marriage.

Thank you for your prayers!
