October 2021

Representing TEAM Mobile Seminary, MGMI, and Ebenezer Bible College and Seminary (IPES).

1. On September 20-23, Dan represented MGMI at BJU's Global Opportunities Week. Dan enjoyed talking to missions-minded students at an informal meet-and-greet, as well as chatting with them by the display table. Dan also spoke in two classes and was able to interact with students there as well.

2. On September 24, in Greenville, SC, Dan had display tables to represent TEAM Mobile Seminary, MGMI, and IPES at the National Conference on Hispanic Outreach (also called the Hispanic Think Tank), an annual one-day conference directed at individuals and sister ministries that minister to Hispanics. As a committee member for the Hispanic Think Tank, Dan's investment in this conference started long before the day of the conference, and it was an enjoyable time of fellowship when the approximately eighty people attended the event. Several former graduates and faculty of IPES attended. Roxana Pérez Keiser, IPES grad and former colleague of Dan and Opal taught a workshop to the ladies who attended the conference. Pastor Jacinto Aguilar, also an IPES grad and former IPES faculty member with Dan and Opal, participated in a pastors' round table. Pastor Fernando Montt, who taught at IPES for a year before heading to North Carolina to pastor a church, was also part of the round table.

Praise and prayer requests:

1. Upcoming teaching opportunities. In November, Dan will participate in an online conference for ministry leaders in three Latin American countries. In December, he will teach a block course online for the faculty of a seminary in Peru. Please pray that these upcoming opportunities will be used for God's glory and the edification of believers throughout the Spanish-speaking world.

2. Support level. Recently, a church that has supported us for close to two decades had to close its doors, which meant that they were no longer able to support us. About the same time, another church that has supported us for over two decades raised their monthly support for us. This is not the first time this scenario has occurred. We are thankful for those who have been able to support us as long as possible, and for those who are able to increase that support level. We are grateful for the current 79.7% of our support that comes in, and we ask that you pray that the Lord would bring in the remaining 20%.

The Family Corner. Opal continues to teach both Daniel and Rose as they homeschool. Daniel has been diligent with his dual credit university courses while in his junior year of high school. On the last two days of September, Dan and Daniel had a chance to go to the Wilds for a father/son retreat.

Thank you for your prayers!
