Happy Easter!

O death, where is thy sting?
O grave, where is thy victory?
The sting of death is sin;
and the strength of sin is the law.
But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!
I Corinthians 15:55-57

Dear Friends,

The most important holiday for Christians is the celebration of the Resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I Cor. 15:14 tells us that ...if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. But we can rejoice knowing that our faith is not in vain. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord (verse 58). My prayer is that the Lord will enable me to always abound in the work of the Lord and that I might serve Him faithfully all my days.

Usually January is an extremely busy time in the home office, what with the usual end-of-the-year responsibilities (mostly tax reports!). This year things have been more challenging for me. The admin for the Evangelical Baptist Church (the bilingual church where our office is located) has been dealing with some serious health issues and hasn't been able to be in the office most of the time. I've been trying to help the church with their responsibilities, as well as MGM's, and I had been doing the tax reports for Westpointe Baptist Church as well.

In my last letter I asked you to pray about Westpointe Baptist Church (where I had the privilege to have a part in serving for the last 17 years) and our need for a permanent location. Our leadership felt that we needed to merge with another church, so our last Sunday was February 28. Please pray especially for those of us who feel the Lord has another place for us to serve that He will show us His perfect will in this matter.

Please remember our MGMI Family in your prayers that God would use us to reach people with the wonderful news of the Resurrection and the promise of eternal life in Heaven with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

In Christ,
